

Death of Osama Bin Laden

By: Mollie McKinney

<http://listverse.com/2011/07/14/top-10-important-events-in-us-history/>

The beginning

Born 1957 by his mother. He was the 7th son among 50 brothers and sisters. He later lost his father at the age of 13. He was then married at age 17 to a syrian girl. He had his primary, secondary and university education in Jeddah. His degree was in public administration. And at the time he was very religiously committed.

FAMILY!

Osama's father moved to the kingdom when he was very poor. With no money and children on the way he started a construction company that spread all over the kingdom. By that time he had been ask to rebuild the castles and churches for millions! Besides his business he also had hundreds of mujahideens come to his house for celebration and playing for the future. This is the main reason Osama was so interested in jihad and terrorism.

Relations

While his father was still alive he hosted hundreds of islamic scholars or leaders in the muslim movement. after his father died his older brothers continued this tradition. And while at secondary school he was adopted into the muslim brotherhood.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

<http://abcnews.go.com/Blotter/osama-bin-laden-unarmed-killed-white-house/story?id=13520152>

1982

Bin Laden had been going into Afghanistan twice a year to collect money for jihad. Jihad is a muslim spiritual war. But on his trips he did not cross the border, until 1982. In 1982 he started spending a lot of time in Afghanistan. Reports show that he would participate in some of the Jihad battles but not in an organized manner.

guest house

In 1984 Osama set up a guest house inside of Afghanistan that new mujahideens (terrorist) would stay at before they went to training. At first Osama didn't have his own training or teaching

<http://www.mirror.co.uk/news/uk-news/video-shows-children-of-killed-taliban-140585>

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

His own command...

In 1986 Osama Decided to build his own camps. Within a year he had 6 camps with hundreds of mujahideens. Some of the people who stayed in his Guest House Switched over to his power and many of the new mujahideens where ex military men from Egypt and Syria.

Within 5 years he had won five major battles and spending up to at least 8 months of the year in Afghanistan.

1988

Osama discovered that he was very far behind in his documents. He then built a new place called Al-Qa'edah which is arabic for Base. He started recording every person who came and left, who trained, and who even charities.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

Back to the Kingdom

In 1989 the soviet withdrew from afghanistan and Osama returned home. They had set a new lay in the Kingdom that banned travel, so Osama arrived he was trapped and could not leave. During this time war was still going on around the Kingdom, but had not yet reached there. By writing letters to the King he was granted to bring his camps, weapons, and mujahideens. With everything falling in place Osama was shocked to hear the Americas were coming.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

Fleeing

At the news of America coming he stop the arrival of his men. Knowing that it was not safe for his to stay in the castle was America snooping around. He then ask his brother, who was very favored by the royal family, to help him leave. When the king left he then was able to convince the prince to lift the ban on Osama. Osama then left for Pakistan arriving around April 1991.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

Moving....

At his arrival at Pakistan he soon left because the Pakistani intelligence would hand him back over to the king. So he went back to Afghanistan. While there the Pakistani and Saudi intelligence tried multiple times to kidnap him or even kill him. With disgust he left Afghanistan on a private jet around late 1991. <http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

saudi

He lived in Saudi between 1992 and 1994. While he was there most of the people greeted him and visited him freely with little precaution. Also during this time his assets where frozen. The all-knowing people knew of Osamas evil and in 1994 they withdrew his citizenship.

Anti-Sudi

He wrote Saudi a letter telling how wrong they have been. The letter also contained harsh words and statements. He then formed a the Advice and Reform Committee (ARC).

<http://www.pbs.org/wgpn/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

<http://www.thesleuthjournal.com/killing-osama-bin-laden-american-hoax/> car bomb..

In 1995, the car bomb planted in Riyadh was the first anti-american action in the kingdom. Osama has never been linked to this, but they do have confessions from 4 Arab Afghans. In these confessions there is something that makes the officials believe that Osamas was in charge.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

out!

2 years after Saudi removed Osamas citizenship he decided to leave because of the international pressure Saudi was put under for hosting Osama. Before he left he contacted his old friends. Knowing they will protect him he fled back to Afghanistan.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

khobar bombing

After his arrival in 1996, was the Khobar Bombing. At the time they could not link Osama to the bombing but figured he had something to do with it. So Saudi covered for him by framing Shi's, but that never went any further. Nobody ended up getting caught for the bombing. When Osama died the truth was that he was the one behind the bombing.

letter..

A few weeks after he arrived in Afghanistan Osama wrote a letter declaring war on the Americans. This declaration was 12 pages long and was very harsh. At the same time the Saudi king was still trying to capture Osama by offering the men hoisting him luxuries gifts. They all refused sadly.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/binladen/who/bio.html>

1997 to 2001

In 1997 America was planning to kidnap Osama, but word leaked and he fled the country of Afghanistan. From 1997-2001 he moved around and learned to hide and never be found or discovered. He would not even wear a watch, because of the fear of being found.

September 11, 2001

Staying with hundreds of terrorist leaders, they planned the most unforgettable attacks. They sent 19 men to the United States for flight school. They separated in groups around the U.S. for school. Once they knew how start the plane and had access they waited for the right time. With Osama and others still in Afghanistan controlling these 19 mens move by move they stayed undetected. (next slide)

September 11, 2001

- The day came and the plan was sent ... The first plane was American Airlines with about 100 people on board. This was the first hit into the North Tower.
- The second plane was United airlines with around 60 people on board. This plane flew straight into the south tower.
- The third plane was American Airlines holding around 60 people. This plane flew straight into the Pentagon.
- The fourth plane was United Airlines holding about 40 people. This plane crashed in a open field killing everyone on board.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Osama_bin_Laden

AFTER

All the evidence from 9/11 pointed straight back to Osama Bin Laden and his whereabouts in Pakistan. Before any movements were taken the us had to discuss and understand the chance they were gonna have to take to capture Osama. Before they could come up with a decision Osama had already left pakistan.

Back!

As soon as word spread that he was gone Osama came right back into Pakistan. There he made several videos of over 10 year time range sending them to America. In these videos he at first denied planned the 9/11 attack. Then by the fourth video he was introducing the surviving 2 hijackers who were involved in the 9/11 attack.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Osama_bin_Laden

http://www.mlive.com/news/us-world/index.ssf/2011/05/officials_osama_bin_laden_kill.html

“Money”

Right after the 9/11 attacks the U.S. government put out a 25 million dollar reward for Osama Bin Laden. In 2007 they decided to double the reward making it 50 million dollars. And both airline companies added 2 million to that. The U.S. spent more time trying to find Osama bin Laden than they have on any war.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Osama_bin_Laden

FOUND!!

In 2011, after finding and questioning harshly of Osamas men his location was discovered. Knowing he would leave that night if he found out they planned this capture soon. The U.S. had a exact replica of his house to plan the attack and make for a better capture.

dead.

May 2, 2011 around 1:00 am seal team 6 dropped into his house and killed almost everybody in expect children. Osama was shot very last. He then was flown back to a U.S. military base and his identification was insured. They United States could rest with a right mind.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Osama_bin_Laden